

Mairen Steel - Character from a Fairy Tale

The appearance of Jasmine brings the warmth of the desert wind accompanied by the delicate sent of the flower that bears her name. Her radiant beauty shines like the sparkling stars in the dark blue night sky. Behind her petite figure and delicate manners there is a determined and independent character. Her dark almond eyes match her long dark hair which is as shiny as the moonlight. Her hair is tied with a turquoise ribbon and a satin headband. She is wearing low-riding sparkling turquoise harem trousers paired with an off-the-shoulder top that leaves the princess' belly button exposed. She has large golden ear-rings and a matching golden necklace. Her feet are in sparkling turquoise Arabic slippers. When she smiles you can see her white teeth just like pearls, and with her sparkling laughter she brings happiness to everyone. The kindness in her soul is reflected in the strong special friendship she has with her pet tiger, Rajah. Wherever she goes anywhere Rajah goes with her and he is always alert and protective of the princess. Jasmine calls to her tiger in a crystal clear and soothing voice: "Oh Rajah, you were just playing with him" when he, yet again, chases away another prince who wants her hand in marriage. However, Jasmine is determined to follow her heart to find her dream which is her true love, her soulmate.
